

SALAD BLENDS

For over 80 years Ippolito and the Queen Victoria™ brand has been synonymous with freshness and quality. It starts with our diversified growing regions through out Canada and the U.S.A. We then transport the fresh blends on our fleet of refrigerated trucks to our processing facilities in Burlington, Ontario. We inspect and process daily using our state-of-the-art technology to ensure the freshest product is always available. The Ippolito group is vertically integrated to provide the best value to our customers. Saving time on the road and processing in our local market means extended shelf life for retailers and food service operators alike.
